"I am writing to highlight what a fantastic team you have... I booked the venue for my partners 40th birthday and the whole experience was so professional. Ray did a great job of setting everything up and was fantastic on the night. What impressed me most was the service – an extra guest arrived which was no problem, the bar staff were great at keeping everyone topped up and the music was fantastic. The whole package was very impressive; I will be using your company again and will be recommending it to others. Thank you again for a very special night."

"Ray, Having come back to my office I have now the time to write to you and give you a feed back on the meeting. The venue worked very, very well. The atmosphere has been great and the approach very helpful all the time. The quality of service has been really good and there has been just a good vibration which is what I expect from a venue like that (but I was worried I would not find it). You in particular have been the good cherry on top of the ice cream. Thank you so much for all your efforts, for being there every time we needed (and even when we did not need you). I hope we can work together in the future. My congratulations to your whole team."

"Thank you to you and your team for making my life easier by being so helpful prior to the event and with my colleagues on the day. They all say you couldn't have been more helpful and I know you'll receive a thank you note from Jo Taylor. I would definitely consider holding an event with you again. The venue you chose was lovely and it makes our job hassle free if you get such a helpful team."

"I've never felt the need to hire an Events Organiser. But when I got too busy to organise my own events, Ray was the first person that came to mind. We had only spoken for about 5 minutes on our first meeting. But when the need arose for an events organiser, I immediately knew Ray was The One! I couldn't trust anyone but Ray Clark with the task of organising Socialite Evenings.

Confident and professional, yet laid back and relaxed. Sincere and hard working yet friendly and personable. Ray manages to get everything in order, meets deadlines and makes sure that your event runs smoothly. As a result, I hire him to organise all my events. Highly recommended!"

"I recently had Crimson Edge organise and run my son's 21st birthday... all I can say is WOW. The attention to detail and amount of organisation that went into it really blew me away. As well as the seemingly endless energy that Ray exerted, every thing was perfect right down to the time taxi's arrived to take the guests home. I have absolutely no hesitation in recommending Crimson Edge for any event or party of any kind... thanks so much..."

Clare Taylor

"I went along as a guest at The Embassy club in Mayfair and was greeted by Crimson Edge as I arrived. I was assisted with my cloakroom items without any hurry or pressure to move along it was all very relaxed as I was introduced to other guests who were arriving at the same time and a few of us were led downstairs to the bar and introduced to more of the other guests.

The atmosphere was made friendly and welcoming and Ray from Crimson Edge checked in on me and other guests who had arrived alone ensuring that we were comfortable and getting the best out of the evening. Ray is certainly someone who is focused on giving a sparkling party atmosphere, neutralising the ambience for newcomers to feel included and as the evening continued his enthusiasm and popularity never waned. I would certainly want to attend any parties that Ray is involved in, he puts the Art into Party!"

Lisa Nicholson

"I just wanted to drop you a line to thank-you for a lovely evening last night. It was really good to see the new 'state of the art event space' (it was too nice to call it a meeting room). The food was delicious and the service very good. I also enjoyed the music and that guy was amazing reading our minds."

*Danny Tamari

"Just a quick note to say that the wedding party and attention from your staff on Saturday were absolutely outstanding. Particularly outstanding were the arrangements made by Ray Clark who's attention to detail and comfort were of the highest degree. Ray's team are dynamic and personal, in the nature of Ray's own management style... a winning combination and are a credit to your company and should be treasured, with thanks and kind regards for a perfect day."

*Marie Diamond

"I attended an event run by Crimson Edge and I must say I was delighted from the time I arrived the staff were very helpful and very attentive without being under foot. The drinks flowed and the canapés were some of the nicest I ever tasted. I am a vegetarian so I was happy that there was plenty of choice. My Grandson will be christened in June and we will be having about 80 to 100 guests; we will be looking at Crimson Edge to help run the event and help choose the venue. I'm sure they can make my Grandson's christening an occasion for my family and friends to remember. I would give them 10 out of 10."
